

2020 Virtual Federal Student Aid Training Conference

Speaker Bio

Session: BO3. Administering Adds, Drops, and Withdrawals

PRESENTER NAME: Benedict A. Dorsey

PRESENTER TITLE: Training Officer

PRESENTER BUSINESS UNIT: Training and Information Services Group

PRESENTER BIO: Benedict A. Dorsey, D.Th., was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. He was honorably discharged from the U.S. Army as a Captain (p) after having graduated from Loyola University of Maryland with a Bachelor of Arts. He later went on to achieve a Master of Fine Arts from Full Sail University and both his Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology from Andersonville Theological Seminary. Prior to joining Federal Student Aid as a Training Officer, he served students as a Financial Aid Administrator at Johns Hopkins University, Coppin State University, Community College of Baltimore County, Baltimore City Community Colleges, Howard University, University of Baltimore, three proprietary schools, and various Baltimore City High schools. In his spare time, Benedict assists a Baltimore-based ministry with motivational speaking, outreach endeavors, and self-enrichment workshops. His mission and drive have been to make higher education possible for all students.