PRESENTER BIO: Byron Scott is a Case Manager for the Multi-Regional and Foreign Schools Participation Division, coordinating compliance oversight activities for Title IV eligible schools that are a part of a large school group under the same ownership. Byron is located in the Chicago Regional Office and has been working for the U.S. Department of Education for more than 28 years. Byron began his federal career in Washington, DC, working with Federal Student Aid's Default Management and State Liaison Offices. From 1995 to 2010, he worked as a Financial Analyst and Institutional Review Specialist in the Chicago-Denver School Participation Division, where he supported the institutional eligibility certification process. From 2010 to 2014, Byron served as a Training Officer, providing training to institutions individually and at conferences. Prior to his work with the Department, Byron worked in the admission offices of two private colleges. Byron's entire career has been spent in post-secondary education.
