Ingrid Valentine

Deputy Director for Partner Eligibility and Oversight Services

Ingrid Valentine joined Federal Student Aid in 2016. She is currently the Deputy Director for Partner Eligibility and Oversight Services. In her role, Ingrid advises the Director on matters related to the Department's monitoring and oversight of the institutions (i.e., schools (domestic and foreign), guarantors, lenders, and servicers) participating in the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid programs. Ingrid began her career in higher education in 1977 and developed her knowledge and management skills in various roles as a law firm consultant dedicated to serving HBCUs, a Vice President with Student Loan Express, at the University of Maryland, College Park, Salem State College in Salem Massachusetts, Barry University in Miami, Florida, American University in Washington, DC, Anne Arundel Community College and Laureate International Education. Ingrid has a longstanding interest in legislative and governmental issues and has held various leadership roles in national and state Financial Aid Associations within NASFAA, EASFAA, SASFAA, and Tri-State. Ingrid received her undergraduate degree from the University of Maryland, College Park and her Jurists Doctorate from the University of Maryland School of Law. On the weekend Ingrid can be found in her garden or in the gym teaching spin or kickboxing.
