Session(s): BO8. Submitting the FISAP - It's a Balancing Act!

Rebecca Meyers

Loan Specialist, Grants and Campus-Based Partner Division

In her role in the Grants and Campus-Based Partner Division, Rebecca Meyers has been helping schools navigate the processes, reporting, and requirements of the Federal Perkins Loan Program for the past seven years. Rebecca provides school administrators the guidance and problem resolution needed to successfully complete and submit Part III (Federal Perkins Loan Program) of the annual FISAP. She assists schools through each step in the process of liquidating and closing out their Perkins programs, and she manages the annual process of the distribution of assets from schools' Perkins Funds.

Prior to coming to Federal Student Aid, Rebecca worked in several different roles in both public and private institutions of higher education including assistant director of financial aid, assistant director of instructional support center, institutional research and assessment analyst, and career and internship advisor. She earned her MBA (Federal Acquisitions and Contracting) at Capitol Technology University (formerly Capitol College) in Laurel, MD, and her BS (Business Administration) at Stevenson University (formerly Villa Julie College) in Stevenson, MD.
