Knowledge Center	With the launch of FSA Partner Connect on March 28, 2021, Federal Student Aid (FSA) transitioned its online repository of federal student aid guidance to the Knowledge Center (https://fsapartners.ed.gov/knowledge-center) and retired its previous Information for Financial Aid Professionals Website. The Knowledge Center capitalizes on newer technology and a modernized web interface. Incorporating feedback from our partners, FSA’s transition to Knowledge Center afforded a new look, feel, and layout to pages and publications, easier access to current and historical content, and more robust and relevant search functionality. A comprehensive set of training resources about FSA Partner Connect, including webinars, tutorials, and quick reference job aids focused on Knowledge Center, is available on the FSA Training Center website. Refer to the March 11, 2021, Training Announcement for details about how to access the training resources, including how to create a username and password for the FSA Training Center if you do not already have one. After logging in, select Training Courses from the main menu bar, then FSA Partner Connect from the drop-down menu. To assist in meeting FSA Partner Connect Knowledge Center goals and supporting increased website use, FSA will periodically publish “Helpful Information About” announcements that provide bite-sized nuggets of information about different features of the FSA Partner Connect website.
